MEDIA ADVISORY
CHAIRWOMAN DIMITRIJEVIC TO HELP DISTRIBUTE GO PASSES MAY 27, 29; SUPERVISOR PATRICIA JURSIK TO JOIN HER ON MAY 29

This week, Milwaukee County Board Chairwoman Marina Dimitrijevic will visit two Milwaukee County senior centers where seniors and persons with disabilities may apply for the GO Pass to receive free transit services. The GO Pass allows seniors in our community and persons with disabilities to ride Milwaukee County buses for free.

“This transit program has been popular since its inception and promotes independence for older adults and people with disabilities with the goal of increasing transit ridership,” Dimitrijevic said. “We’re heading in the right direction.”

Dimitrijevic will be at the Grobschmidt Senior Center, 2424 15th Avenue, South Milwaukee, from 10:30 a.m. to 11 on Wednesday, May 27. Dimitrijevic will be joined by Supervisor Patricia Jursik at the Grobschmidt Senior Center. Dimitrijevic will be at the Beulah Brinton Community Center, 2555 S. Bay Street in Milwaukee from noon to 12:30 p.m. on Friday, May 29.
